

Qld, NSW share Poll Hereford grands

Breed tops success

By MALCOLM McCOSKER

GRAND champion female award to high achieving Queensland stud Kalem and grand bull tricolour to northern NSW Clay Pool stud climaxed a high quality Poll Hereford showing judged by Jack Smith, Currabubula, NSW.

Trevor and Pearl Saal, Tarewinnabar, Arcadia Valley and their son-in-law and daughter, Ivan and Amanda Burcher, Goondiwindi, jointly run Kalem Stud which has been most successful Poll Hereford exhibitor for seven years in succession.

Topping their successes this year was grand and senior champion female Kalem Beauty C04, winner of the 30 to 48 months, impressing the judge for her conformation, femininity and overall correctness.

Kalem also showed reserve junior champion bull Kalen Explorer and reserve junior heifer Kalem Dinah E14 and then took firsts in all three group classes – three bulls, breeder's group and sires progeny.

Taking grand champion bull award was senior champion Clay Pool Zac, winner 24-30 months, by Cascade Zircon Z07 and weighing 1146kg with 1.33kg daily weight gain. This bull came to the top for his completeness in sire outlook, fleshing
